1 Connect

Before connecting

Select the most suitable connection (Options in B) based on your home set up. Refer to the accompanying User Manual for other possible connections.

A Connecting Recorder and TV

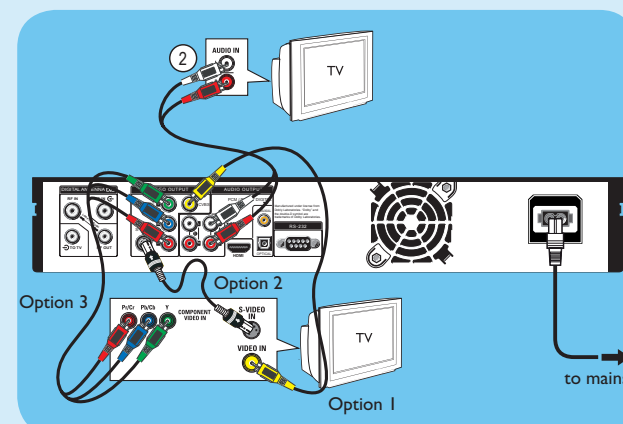

- 1 Unplug the antenna cable that is currently connected to your TV.
- 2 Connect the antenna cable into the Digital Antenna Input socket on the recorder.
- 3 Connect the To TV Antenna socket with RF antenna cable to the Antenna In Socket on the TV.

Helpful Hints :

Use the best quality AV connectors (CVBS/S-Video/Component Video/HDMI), not the RF connections from this recorder to the television, to achieve the best video quality.

- 4 Loop through between RF IN and RF OUT with supplied antenna interconnected cable.

B Connecting the Video/Audio Cables

- 1 You can choose one of the options to make your video connection.

Option 1

– Use the composite video cable to connect the Video Output-CVBS socket on the recorder to the video input socket on the TV

Option 2

– Use the S-Video cable to connect the S-Video socket on the recorder to the S-Video input socket on the TV

Option 3

– Use the component video cables to connect the Video Output-COMPONENT-Y Pb Pr sockets on the recorder to the corresponding component video input sockets on the TV

Note If you have a HDMI TV, connect the HDMI cable from the recorder to your HDMI TV set. See the chapter “Basic Connections – Connecting to a HDMI compatible TV” in the accompanying user manual.

- 2 Use the audio cable to connect the Audio Output- L/R 1 or 2 sockets to the audio input sockets of the connected device.
- 3 Connect the power cable from the recorder to an AC power outlet.

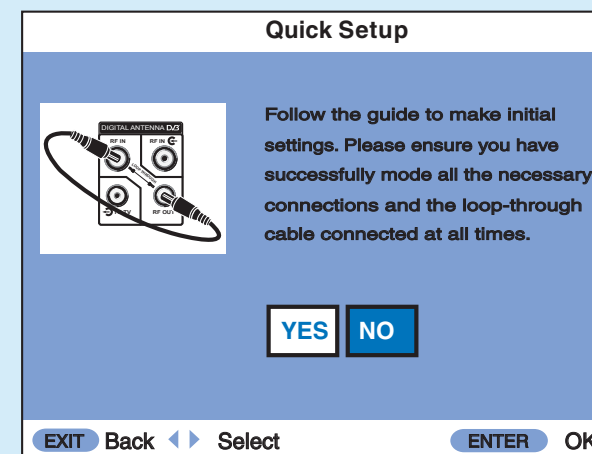

For additional connection diagrams, see the accompanying User Manual.

2 Set up

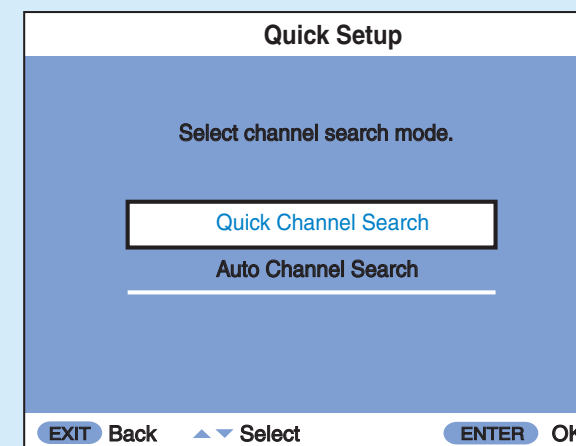

A Quick Setup

Use the recorder's remote control and follow the on-screen instructions to complete the setup.

- 1 Press Power to turn on the recorder.
- 2 Switch on the TV set and the Quick Setup menu is displayed.
- 3 In case, you don't see the recorder's Quick Setup menu, press MENU, then select {Quick Setup} and press OK to enter the setup screen.

- 4 You can follow the guide which will help you throughout the process.
- 5 Select {YES}, and press OK.
- 6 When the Time Zone screen appears, select your time zone and press OK.
- 7 Select the channel search mode and press OK.
- 8 If you select { Quick Channel Search } select your city and press OK.

- 9 The Quick Setup is completed now, press OK to close the menu.
